1. Advise you of the relevant rules and procedure to follow.
2. Tell you which documents will support your appeal.
3. Prepare and lodge your appeal grounds and appeal form.
4. Review your Home Office file.
5. Prepare your appeal file for the hearing.
6. Conduct a mock appeal hearing, as what type of questions you may be asked at the hearing.
7. Send instructions to your Counsel and the file.
8. Advise you on the outcome of the appeal decision.

Disbursements are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as Tribunal fees.

The final price depends on your particular circumstances, such as:

1. Any complex immigration history.
2. Number of witness statements and character reference letters.
3. The location of the appeal hearing.
4. The amount of documents that we need to consider and prepare.
5. Whether you are applying with dependents.
6. Counsel fee to attend one appeal hearing.
7. The urgency of lodging the appeal.
